Walt Weiskopf European Quartet announces first leg of 2024 Europe tour

New York, NY. – American saxophonist, composer, and author Walt Weiskopf and his European Quartet (WWEQ) announce their 2024 tour, hitting the European and Scandinavian jazz circuit in February and March; and then again in November. Along with Weiskopf, WWEQ is comprised of three of Europe's finest and most sought-after rhythm section artists, Carl Winther (piano), Andreas Lang (bass), and Anders Mogensen (drums). The group will play music from their fifth and most recent album release “Harmless Addiction,” which was recorded in Berlin last year. All WWEQ albums can be found on Spotify and other streaming platforms.

The WWEQ 2024 tour will commence in Denmark on February 21 and wind-up in Germany on March third. Many of the jazz venues will be return engagements for WWEQ.

Says Weiskopf about this year’s tour, “We have so much new material now, so our focus is to concentrate on performing what we have recorded over the past couple of years. We want to bring the best possible performance to each audience and are extremely gratified to have the opportunity to return with encore performances to the best jazz clubs in Europe.”

About Walt Weiskopf:

With critically-acclaimed albums and countless sideman credits, Walt started his career with the Buddy Rich band at the age of 21. In the years since, he has released more than 25 CDs featuring a stellar cast of the best contemporary jazz musicians including Brad Mehldau, John Pattitucci, Joe Magnarelli, Renee Rosnes, Joe Locke, Conrad Herwig, Peter Zak, Billy Drummond, and Peter Washington, to name a few. For over 20 years, Weiskopf continues to be an active member of the Steely Dan band. Steely Dan is currently working with the Eagles’ “Long-Goodbye” tour.
