Walt Weiskopf European Quartet announces 2024-25 international winter tour

New York, NY. – American saxophonist, composer, and author Walt Weiskopf and his European Quartet (WWEQ) announce their 2024-25 (seventh annual) three-leg winter tour, hitting the European and Scandinavian jazz circuit in November and January; and then again in March for a third leg in the United States. Playing music from their most recent album Harmless Addiction, WWEQ is comprised of three of Europe's finest and most sought-after rhythm section artists, Carl Winther (piano), Andreas Lang (bass), and Anders Mogensen (drums). Along with Weiskopf, the quartet continues to make sterling marks in the worldwide jazz scene.

Says Dan Bilawsky of JazzTimes about Diamond and Other Jewels, “Three of the album’s eight tracks play directly to its title...blues-based ‘Black Diamond;’ ...a probing and swinging ‘Blood Diamond;’ ...and [the] glistening ballad ‘Other Jewels.’ ...The remaining pieces further highlight Weiskopf’s stellar horn work, his writing and arranging, and a strong connection between bandmates.

During the first leg of the tour, WWEQ will record new material in Berlin where Weiskopf will continue to collaborate and showcase the convergence of the talents of Winther, Lang and Mogensen. More dates will be added and announced later this year.

Says Weiskopf about next year’s extended tour, “Carl, Andreas, Anders, and I are very excited to commence playing together again this season. Our hearts and minds are focused on bringing great music to jazz-loving audiences here and abroad!”

All WWEQ albums can be found on Spotify and other streaming platforms.

About Walt Weiskopf:

With critically-acclaimed albums and countless sideman credits, Walt started his career with the Buddy Rich band at the age of 21. In the years since, he has released more than 20 CDs featuring a stellar cast of the best contemporary jazz musicians including Brad Mehldau, John Pattitucci, Joe Magnarelli, Renee Rosnes, Joe Locke, Conrad Herwig, Peter Zak, Billy Drummond, and Peter Washington, to name a few. For 19 years, Weiskopf continues to be an active member of the Steely Dan band.
